PINEAPPLE MAGNATE HOME FROM MAINLAND

James D. Dole, head of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company and one of the territory's pioneers in this field, arrived home today on the Korea after an extensive business tour of the mainland. He is accompanied by Mrs. Dole. While on the mainland Dole looked over the pineapple trade in general and made plans for continuing the company's advertising campaign, which makes its products known the world over.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wise yesterday. This is the ninth child of the Wise family.

The quarterly session of Aloha Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., will be held in the Masonic Temple at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

A special business meeting of the Christian Church has been called for this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

A. F. Tavares and a number of Chinese residents of Hilo have applied for articles of incorporation for the Aloha Market Company, intending to engage in a general meat business at Hilo.

All Knights of Pythias are requested to attend the funeral of our late Bro. W. S. Pomroy to be held at the Undertaking Parlors of H. H. Williams at 3:00 P. M. Thursday afternoon.

Notices to corporations calling for the payment of internal revenue taxes and the special revenue tax have been sent out by Collector Cottrill. The regular and special taxes both become delinquent after June 30.

The Salvation Army will hold its first meeting in the new building on Nuuanu between Queen and Merchant streets tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

A short program of music and recitations will be rendered, after which Colonel Blanche B. Cox will deliver an address.

The members of the junior branch of the Hawaiian Philhellenic Society will meet at the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 4 o'clock. This will be the last meeting until next fall and all interested in the society are requested to be present.

George W. Farr yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of Leong Kee, former storekeeper in the Maunaloa block, who died intestate April 19. It is understood the deceased left a widow and child, now in China, whose names have not yet been ascertained.

A banquet was given at the Hiron Hotel on Kukulani Sunday evening by a number of prominent Japanese residents of the city in honor of K. Imanishi, former Honolulu manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank, and Mrs. Imanishi. Dr. K. Haida acted as toastmaster, and there were a number of speakers. The banquet was attended by more than 150 persons.

With a view to securing funds to pay the tuition fees of a student at the Kawaihau Seminary, the members of the alumni of that institution will give a dance in the Odd Fellows' hall on the evening of June 24. The board of supervisors last night granted the alumni permission to give the dance.

LOCAL
Judgment in the sum of $500 was awarded Pietro Brada against the Hawaiian Dredging Company by Circuit Judge H. E. Cooper yesterday. Brada sued for $25,000 damages for injuries received while in the firm's employ. The court held that the company had failed to provide suitable hospital service.

OLD STRUGGLE FOR LARGE PROPERTY IS BEING RENEWED TODAY

Renewing the old struggle for possession of several tracts at Kamae, Honolulu, valued at $25,000, hearing of the civil suit between the Right Reverend Libert Hubert Boyenans and L. Ah Leong will be resumed in Judge H. E. Cooper's division of the circuit court this afternoon.

The original suits, instituted last year, named Bishop Libert and a number of occupants of the lots as defendants. Ah Leong, who claims an undivided half interest in the entire property, bringing his actions against the Bishop and each of the occupants separately.

To simplify the matter Bishop Libert filed a counter suit against Ah Leong, involving the titles of all the lots included in litigation. This latter suit was filed August 27 of last year, but has just come to trial today.

TERRITORY MAY APPEAL RULING

Whether the territory will file a motion for a re-trial of the test case brought by the Apokaa Sugar Company, following the supreme court's decision which yesterday afternoon ruled against the territory, Attorney General Thayer this morning said he was not in a position to announce.

The attorney general was so confident his contention, that the new statute should not apply retrospectively, would be accepted that the supreme court's ruling to the contrary came as a big surprise. The amount of the special income tax for the fiscal year 1911 amounted to $442,389.28, and it is thought the tax for 1912 would be nearly as large. If the two per cent rate were held to be binding under the new statute. Since it is not so held, the territory's income from that source will be reduced fifty per cent, or to one-half the figure given above.

JURY IS DRAWN.

Jurymen to serve in the trial of the four Filipinos charged with the murder at Kahaula of the Chinese storekeeper and his wife, were drawn in the circuit court this afternoon as follows: C. J. Ludwigen; J. H. Fildes; Mr. Philip, H. T. Wally, W. A. Wall, C. R. Frazier, W. K. Mattheison, C. T. Osborne, C. H. Hustace, John Coffey, W. M. Buchanan and J. H. Thompson.

George Carter's Article

Trust Companies magazine for May has been received by the Hawaiian Trust Company. It contains an article by former Governor George R. Carter on trust companies in Hawaii, the publication of which in the New York periodical was foretold in this paper some time ago.

Rose.—Advertisement.

BATTELLE PLAN APPARENTLY IS SATISFACTORY

A rumor that the Battelle process, for increasing the extraction of sugar and for the making of white sugar in the plantation mill, had been accepted and a handsome settlement made with the inventor proves, upon inquiry in the proper quarter, to be at least premature.

Mr. Eckart has not yet made his report on the process. President J. P. Cooke of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association said when questioned, and referred the reporter to the committee on the experiment station for the present status of the testing operations at the special plant for the purpose on Ewa plantation.

George F. Davies, a member of the committee, stated that Dr. Norris was figuring out exact results of the experiments with the process, and until his work was completed the report would not be forthcoming. E. E. Battelle, who invented the process when employed as chemist by the Walluku Sugar Company, has been assisting Director Eckart in the experiments at Ewa right along, having changed his residence from Walluku to Honolulu.

At last previous reports of the process in this paper, the committee was satisfied that the process was a success in certain aspects, but for the rest more time was required for experimenting. From the manner rather than the matter of answers given to inquiries today, it might be taken that the committee is anything but disappointed at the prospects.

PARTING GIFT TO MR. ECKART

Faithful and skilful service for many years as director of the planters' experiment station, by C. F. Eckart as director, was pleasantly recognized today in connection with his retirement. As a meeting of the trustees of the association, to which he had been invited, Mr. Eckart was presented with a silver tray having a suitable inscription engraved in the middle.

President J. P. Cooke made the presentation in appropriate remarks, in addition to which F. M. Swanzy and E. D. Tenney, former presidents, expressed in cordial terms appreciation of the valuable services of the retiring director. Mr. Eckart replied, acknowledging both the gift and the support he had always received from the association.

Mr. Eckart, as generally known, leaves Honolulu to take the management of Olaa plantation.

POLICE NOTES

The case of Ah Nee, who has pleaded innocent to a charge of larceny, was postponed yesterday until June 6. C. H. Kim and C. H. Yong, the former charged with assault and battery, the latter with malicious injury, were bound over to the circuit court.

The trial of Lui In, accused of adultery, was also deferred, June 9 being set as the date for his trial. Wong Hung, who was arrested a few days ago for "cutting short" a corner, and charged with attempting to bribe the officer who caused his arrest, was discharged on the latter count. He was fined six dollars for his driving offense.
